6 COURSE FEAST

Chef Yeo's Signature 1 : Double Prosperity Lo-Hei (双喜捞起)

A Chinese New Year must-have, Yusheng is a prosperity-bringing dish, handcrafted with double happiness using 'prosperity' shredded abalone and 'fortune-bringing' smoked salmon topped with caviar and edible gold leaves.

Chef Yeo's Signature 2 : Sichuan "Mouth Watering" Chicken (口水鸡)

Sichuan 'mouth-watering' chicken or Kou Shui Ji is one of the most popular Chinese dishes. Chef Yeo's flavourful version includes a tender whole chicken, vibrant red homemade chilli oil, toasted sesame seeds, crushed roasted peanuts and the key aromatic ingredient, fresh Sichuan peppercorn.

Chef Yeo's Speciality Fragrant Sichuan Prawns (哈哈大笑)

Succulent jumbo prawns with shell (for natural sweetness) pan-fried with a flavourful homemade sweet and savoury Sichuan sauce.

Chinese Kai Lan with Shiitake Mushrooms (芥蓝炒香菇)

Fresh Chinese Kai Lan and sliced shiitake mushrooms sauteed with Shaoxing wine, corn starch, and minced fresh ginger and garlic.

Stir Fried Blessings Glutinous Rice (生炒糯米)

Sticky glutinous rice stir-fried with premium dried scallops, delicious Chinese sausages and dry-cured Chinese Jinhua ham.

Chef Yeo's Signature 3 : Chef Yeo's Mother-in-Law's Peanut Dumplings (岳母花生圆)

An heirloom recipe passed down from Chef Yeo's mother-in-law, of tasty and juicy dumplings, coated with roasted peanuts and sesame seeds guaranteed to be a hit among both children and adults.
